Dr. Mohammed Iyoob Mohammed Ilyas
General Surgery Residency Program
Department of Surgery
University of Arizona

“Chief’s Talk - Surgical Training; Reflections on Intercontinental Variations“

Dr. Mohammed Ilyas received attendance Medical School at the Kasturba Medical College in Mangalore, India graduating in 1998. In 1999, he earned his M.B.,M.S. and spent one year working with critically ill patients as a Senior House Officer in the ICU at the National Hospital in India. In 2001, Dr. Ilyas joined the General Surgery residency program at the Kilpauk Medical College in India and then in 2009, completed resident training at the Oxford University Hospitals in Oxford, United Kingdom. In 2011, Dr. Ilyas finished residency training at the Brooklyn Hospital Center in Brooklyn, NY and then completed a year of training at the Cleveland Clinic in Florida, working under the direction of Dr. Raul Rosenthal. Dr. Ilyas joined the General Surgery Residency Program here in the Department of Surgery at the University of Arizona. Since here, he has the honor of being the highest scoring resident in ABSITE both Senior and Junior levels combined. He is a member of several medical organizations and has several peer reviewed publications to his credit. In his spare time, he enjoys playing soccer, cricket and Formula One Race Cars. Upon completion of his training here at the University of Arizona, Dr. Ilyas has been awarded a Colorectal Fellowship at the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, MI.

Dr. Ilyas has disclosed that he has no financial relationships with commercial interests that would constitute a conflict of interest concerning this CME activity.

All other Faculty, CME Planning Committee Members, and the CME Office Reviewer have disclosed that they have no financial relationships with commercial interests that would constitute a conflict of interest concerning this CME activity.

Objectives: Discuss current general clinical and scientific information presented at the conference; Utilize the information presented on current procedures and protocols as it relates to enhanced patient care.

Target Audience: Physicians, nurses, students, residents, and other health care professionals.

Methodology: Lecture

The University of Arizona College of Medicine - Tucson is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education to physicians.

The University of Arizona College of Medicine – Tucson designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

All DOS Resident Attendance is Mandatory * This Session will be video taped